

StudyBuddy Design System – Short Rationale

The StudyBuddy Design System was created to ensure consistency and usability across the platform. It includes a unified color palette, typography styles, buttons, cards, navigation elements, inputs, and icons. By using reusable components and design guidelines, the system helps maintain a cohesive user experience while improving design efficiency and scalability for future development.